COPA DE ORO

PUBLISHED BY THE SENIOR CLASS,

CALIF.—FRED LUMBARD, EDITOR-IN

ENIOR HIGH SCHOOL, SOUTH PASADENA,
CHIEF, JACK SCHMIDT, BUSINESS MANAGER

TO MR. ELMER H. CROOK WE, THE CLASS OF NINETEEN HUNDRED AND THIRTY-NINE, DEDICATE THIS, OUR YEARBOOK, IN APPRECIATION OF HIS UNTIRING EFFORTS IN BEHALF OF OUR CLASS. HE HAS GIVEN FREELY OF HIS TIME AND EXPERIENCE, BUT HAS NEVER SOUGHT PERSONAL RECOGNITION OR GLORY. WE ARE PROUD TO HAVE HAD THE PLEASURE OF KNOWING SO GREAT A PUBLIC SERVANT.

DEDICATION

FOREWORD

To you, the students, faculty, and friends of this school, we present the Copa de Oro with the hope that, in a measure, we have given you a record of the year's activities in the classroom, in the laboratory, in assemblies, on the campus, on the athletic fields, and in your social activities and endeavors which will cause you now, as your eye follows through the word and picture story, to recapture and live again many of the happy moments that we feel you must have spent during the school year of 1938 and 1939.

We have tried to portray you as you are and have been, working and playing together. We have attempted several things, we believe, which are new to Copa de Oros of the past. We realize, however, that we have not exhausted the field of the new and that we have not attained perfection, but we do hope that we may have your approval of our efforts.

Dear Francis
Just lots of luck to a really good artist. May you have a good time this summer.
Hope I see you again soon.
Lucille Garwood

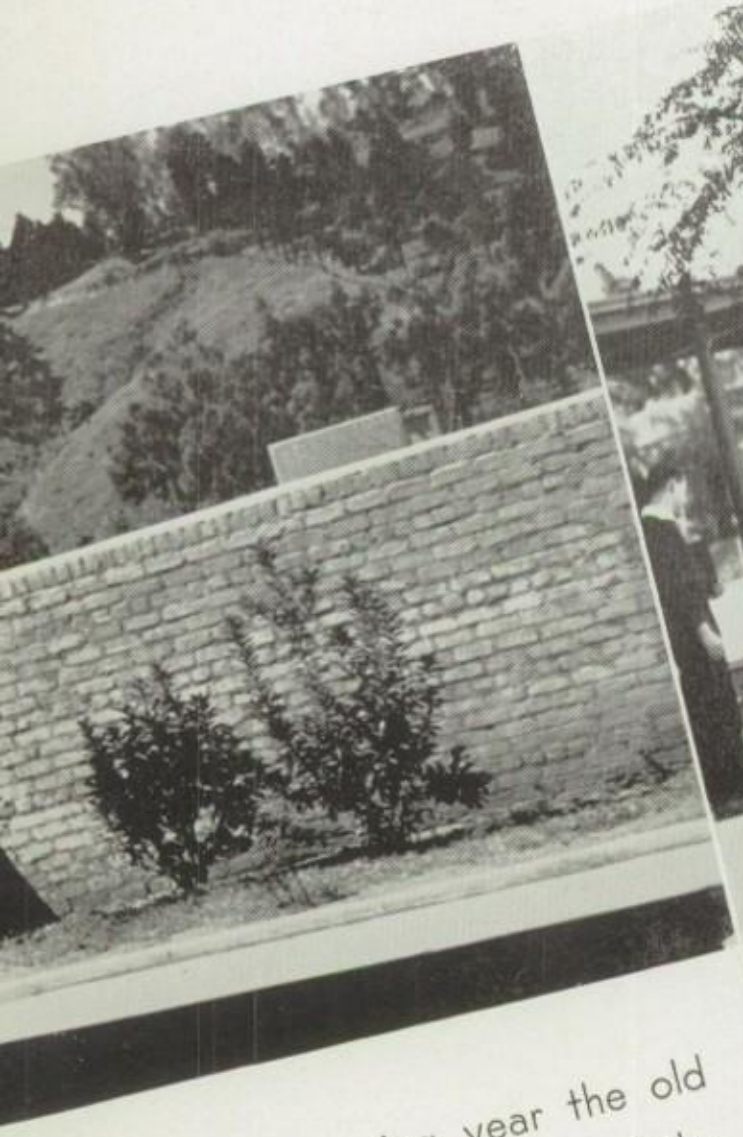
CAMPUS BEAUTIFUL



With each passing year the old and familiar take on a tinge of the new. Those who have known the campus during recent years feel that it is becoming more and more, in its entirety, the Campus Beautiful.

Upper: Tall palms vie with the flag for supremacy in the front quad. Below: A verdant backdrop lends attractiveness to the mechanical arts buildings.

ADMINISTRATION

ADMINISTRATORS

South Pasadena Senior High School is fortunate in having a group of generous, capable, and highly respected men and women who provide the leadership, direction, and means for accomplishing the objectives of modern education. The four members of the Board of Education who give so generously of their time (in the group below) are Mr. George A. Hooper, Mr. J. C. Partsch, Mr. Hugh Wallace, and Mrs. Mabel M. Wilson. At the extreme right in the group is Mr. George C. Bush, superintendent of schools.

In the lower left hand corner is Mr. Bush, superintendent, who is now completing his thirtieth year of service in South Pasadena schools. To the left is Mr. John E. Alman, principal of the high school, under whose capable leadership the school has gained an enviable position and record among the high schools of California. On the opposite page are Vice Principal Elmer J. Erickson and Miss Jessie T. Oldt, dean of girls, whose helpfulness and deep understanding have been felt by every boy and girl in school.

CLASS OF 1939

Under the leadership of the class officers and Miss Margaret Lauer, adviser, the class of 1939 with 343 members started the year's activities with a prize winning booth in the Thanksgiving Drive. On March 25, members of the class presented a three-act comedy, "Skidding," directed by Miss Lauer, to a capacity audience in the auditorium. The annual Senior ditch day was held on May 31 at the Hollywood Riviera Country Club, with the class enjoying a day of swimming and dancing, and on June 10 the prom was given for the seniors by the junior class.

Teal blue and white were chosen as the class colors, and the senior sweaters followed this color scheme. Each year the senior class leaves behind a gift for the beautification of the school or campus. This is usually done after graduation. The gift chosen by the class of 1938 was a speaker's stand for the auditorium. June 16 culminated three year's work and play for the largest graduating class in the history of the school.

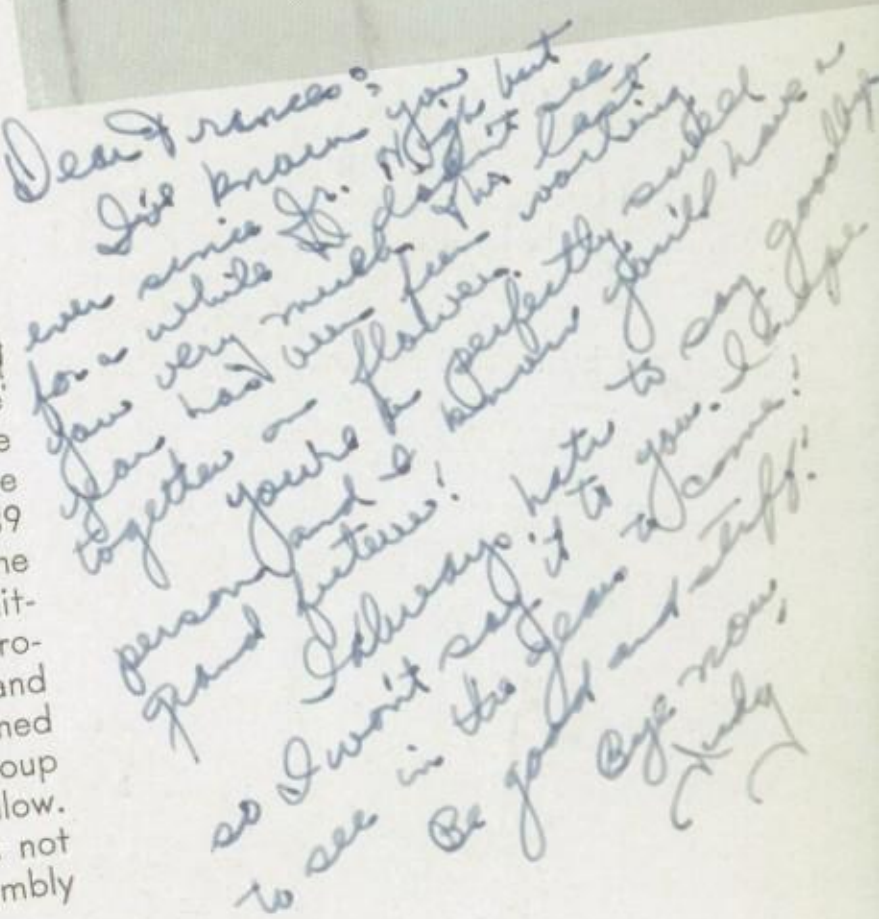
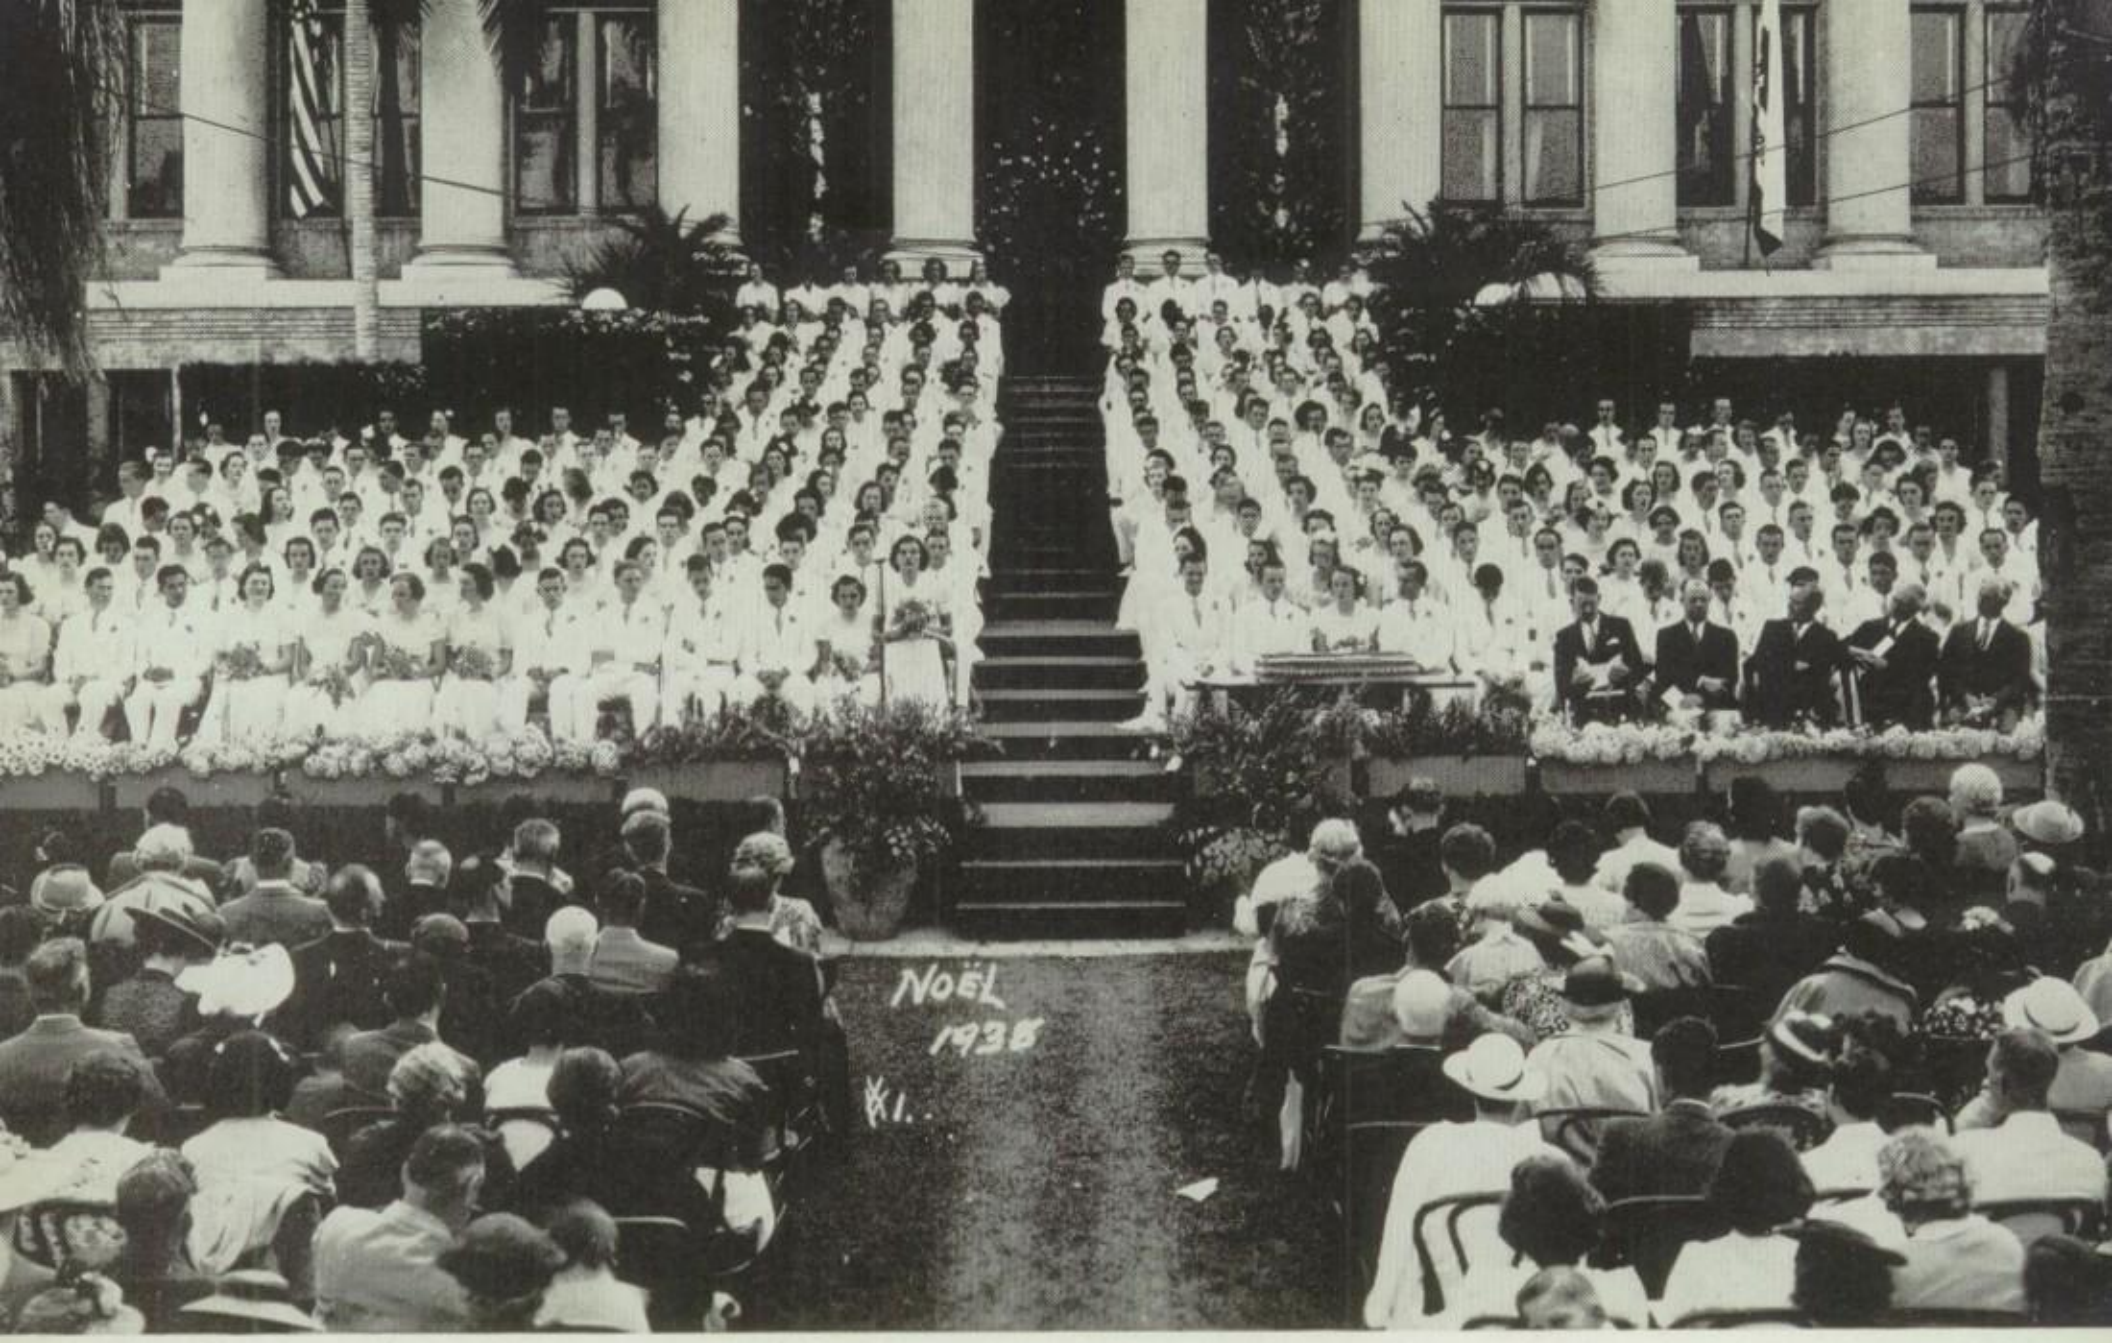
The class gift committee must, with suggestions from the rest of the class, choose the gift that is to be left behind for the classes in the future to enjoy. The money for this gift comes mainly from the profits from the senior play. The Senior Day committee had complete charge of the plans for the day spent by the class at the Hollywood Riviera Country Club. They decided on the location, the amusements and recreations, and the food. The Seven Tiger has the responsibility of choosing the seven most representative members of the senior class in respect to their service to their class and the entire student body. The colors, teal blue and white, were chosen by the color committee to represent the class of 1939 throughout the year. These colors were carried out in the sweaters and in the graduation. The announcement committee, under the leadership of Tom Miller, had the job of procuring and selling to the class graduation announcements and personal cards. The Girls' and Boys' Dress committee planned the costume to be worn at graduation. They set up a group of regulations which the members of the class had to follow. The senior class song at the date this was written was not chosen, but this song is sung by the class at the last assembly of the year.





COMMENCEMENT

The 1939 Commencement, which is only in the offing as this book goes to press, will consist of the senior procession to the music of Gounod's Marche Pontificale, the Priest's March from Mendelssohn's "Athalia," and Elgar's Pomp and Circumstance, played by the high school orchestra under the direction of Mr. Paul Huntington. Following the invocation, Rosemary Neiswender, class speaker, will deliver her address. Malcolm Imbrie, the other class speaker, will speak following a selection by the senior ensemble consisting of Betty Arnold, Frances Cunningham, Mary Ann Cole, Dawn Dumont, Martha Eggleston, Marjorie Gerfen, Bettie Knight, Dorothy Mohns, Esther Mae Slater, William Adams, Dayton Blair, Kenneth Cramer, Warren Detrick, David Kuhlman, Joe Moseley, Madison Meredith, Lowell Ogden, and Barbara Price, under the direction of Mr. Albert J. Adams. The speaker of the occasion will deliver his address preceding the presentation of the class gift by Robert Hartley, senior class president. Presentation of the Carver Award will be made by Superintendent George C. Bush, following which Mr. John E. Alman, principal, will present the class of 1939. Diplomas will be presented by Mrs. W. W. Wilson, chairman of the Board of Education. The program will be concluded with the benediction.

The pictures show the graduation of the class of 1938, which was held on June 16, 1938. At the top of the opposite page is a photo of the entire graduating class with, Virginia Jones, one of the class speakers, giving her oration. The other class speaker was Albert Hove. Many of the shots show the junior girls who form an archway of flowers for the class to walk beneath on their way to the platform. At this ceremony Reed Ringstrom, senior class president, presented the senior class gift, a speakers stand for the auditorium. This traditional graduation ceremony is held each year on the front lawn of the main building. Several hundred parents and residents of the city attended this impressive affair.

Notable accomplishments were achieved this year by the junior class. Their first move was to elect Howard Cheverton, class president; Eugene Young, vice-president; Betty Arthur, secretary; and Amos Schwartz, treasurer. Miss Myrtle Farrar, history teacher, was the class adviser. In order to carry out the juniors' tradition of winning the Thanksgiving Drive, George Sato, chairman of the drive, brought first place, in percentage of food gathered, to the class. The theme for the booth was inspired by the song "A Tisket, A Tasket" and a large basket of beautifully arranged fall flowers and leaves decorated their contributions. A high honor for a junior is to be elected to serve on the Weldon Fair Play committee. Those elected this year were Pat Chubbuck, Carol Henry, Barbara Norton, Barbara Thompson, Eugene Young, Robert Fisk, Frank Hart, and David Merrill. The biggest event of the school year was the Junior-Senior Prom sponsored by the juniors. This year it was held on June 3. At graduation the junior girls, following an old South Pasadena tradition, decorated and held the arches for the seniors.

Although they are rather young, that does not keep the sophomores from being a large and popular part of the student body. The class officers are Bob Andrews, president; Kenneth Donnelly, vice-president; and Miss Grace Wallace, adviser, and are seen in the upper left hand picture. Emy Lou McIlwain, secretary; Reg Robinson, treasurer; and Polly Eagan, yell leader, are in the upper right picture.

They worked hard on the Thanksgiving Drive and were awarded the first prize for the appearance and the theme of their booth. Bob Perrine, Donald Brett, Patrick Meahan, Charolette Reinhold, Ruth Barker, Peggy Humane, Mary Eaton, and Heberta Blight were on the Drive committee. The theme of the booth was "The Land of Oz," and a big yellow pumpkin surrounded by a cornfield held the contributions. The class dues of ten cents were collected at the beginning of the year in the sophomore English classes. Those on the committee forchoosing the Weldon Fair Play Award winners were Herberta Blight, Emy Lou McIlwain, Robert Andrews, and Andrew Campbell. The sophomores do their part in the graduation by decorating the stands for the seniors.

CLASS OF 1942

The mid-year class of 1939 entered from the junior high school in February. Their advisers are Mr. Elmer J. Erickson, dean of boys, and Miss Jessie T. Oldt, dean of girls. At their first meeting they elected Brenton Wilson to be their president; Jack McNeiven, vice-president; Helen Bellinger, secretary; and Sue Cristy, treasurer. Peggy Lorenz was the freshman representative on the Girls' League Cabinet. The change from junior high to the senior high school was somewhat of a problem for these new students; however, they found everyone willing to help them adapt themselves to their new routine. Besides providing "big sisters" for the new girls, the Girls' League gave them an interesting party. Miss Oldt divided the freshman girls into different groups, and during their study hall a senior girl was in charge to help them get acquainted in their new surroundings. All the new students were urged to come to the school dances and the after school dances.

LEADERS

As commissioner general, Bill Symes has done outstanding work this year. He has represented the school at various activity conferences. In addition, Bill has provided for and taken charge of the weekly assemblies.

Commissioner of Publicity Anne Roberts wrote a column for two weekly papers, furnished accounts of student activities to several dailies, and acted as secretary to the student body and the executive commission.

Bill Love has taken charge of student body finances, in his position as commissioner of finance. At the beginning of the year, Bill directed the student body ticket sale.

In general charge of all boys' athletic activities, Frank Wright served as commissioner of athletics. Suitable advertising for events was also provided by Frank, who took an active interest in his work.

Evelyn Crump, as commissioner of interior started student government in the library and led the campus committee through a very successful year. She has been influential in securing many improvements about the campus.

Commissioner of Girls Miriam Leeds and Commissioner of Boys Virgil Richards had a very fine year as League presidents. The combined Leagues sponsored the amateur show, deemed one of the most successful assemblies this year.

The four class presidents, Bob Hartley, Howard Cheverton, Bob Andrews, and Brenton Wilson are also members of the commission, voting on matters pertaining to their classes.

BOYS' AND GIRLS'

Speakers such as Dean Cromwell, UCLA coach, Coach Mallory of PJC, and Frank Bull, noted sports commentator, and an enjoyable evening of dancing at the Winter Ice Carnival constituted some of the more important activities of the Boys' League during the last year under the direction of Virgil Richards, president, and ably advised by Mr. Elmer J. Erickson, adviser. Monthly meetings were held, alternating group meetings in the auditorium with committee meetings. There are fifteen committees to which the boys may belong with a chairman for each group. The other officers for the Boys' League for the past year have included Bill Adams, vice-president; Tom Miller, secretary; and William Sato, treasurer.

The Girls' League, as always, included many good times in their numerous activities during the past year, starting off with the semi-annual New Girls' Party in October and sponsoring the first school dance of the year, a premier. Other events backed by the Girls' League were Mother's Day teas and an amateur show in cooperation with the Boys' League. The committees of the League vied for top honors in the annual calendar sale, and the losers of the contest entertained the winners at the monthly meeting of the girls. These activities have been carried on during the past year under the direction of the president of the Girls' League, Miriam Leeds, and Miss Jessie T. Oldt, adviser. The other officers of the group were Rosemary Neiswender, vice-president; Betty Lou Brooks, secretary; and Susie Huguenin, treasurer. Various committees aided in activities throughout the year.

An annual trip to Padua Hills Theater, providing for the poor through the use of Spanish pig banks, and club pins in the shape of sombreros; through all these, the genuine spirit of Old Spain and Mexico has been captured by the members of the El Club Galdos. The meetings were presided over by Frances Cunningham, president; Bob Farmer, vice-president; Betty Cruikshank, secretary; and Bob Daigh, treasurer. El Club Galdos was ably advised by Miss Mary E. Nash. Again this year the club's treasury was enlarged by the annual doughnut sale.

ALLIED YOUTH

"Good times without alcoholic beverages" might well be the slogan of the Allied Youth. Throughout the past year members of this club have not only furthered their work in alcoholic education, but have also had many good times. The activities started off this year with an initiation party in November for the new members, and later the Allied Youth provided the student body with an interesting assembly. In cooperation with the Alumni Post they sponsored the New Year's Eve Dance to which everyone was invited. Ice-skating parties and picnics also constituted some of the good times of this organization. Broadcasting over a national network and aiding in starting many new chapters of the Allied Youth were other activities carried on this year under the direction of the president, Glen Lathrop, and Mrs. Helen Denny Orsborn, adviser. The other officers helping them were Dorothy James, vice-president; Dorothy Egge, secretary; and Bob Sands, treasurer. The club also has a small cabinet to plan the monthly meetings.

With an increased number of pages, color photographs, and more interesting layouts, this year's annual staff has had a real job rounding out a complete book. Under the guidance of Mr. Elmer H. Crook and Miss Archine Van Norden with Fred Lumbard as editor-in-chief, the staff spent many busy weeks writing copy, taking photographs, and making layouts.

The staff consisted of Malcolm Imbrie, associate editor; Jack Schmidt, business manager; Margaret McDonald, photography schedule editor; and assistants to both business and photography, Betty Andrew and Theodosia Robinson. Frances Cox was senior editor with assistant, Barbara Connell. Under classes were tended by Peggy Durrell who was assisted by Ruthanne Donnelly. As organizations editor, Janet Beckwith ably filled the job, with Betty Kolterman as assistant. Boys' Sports was handled by David Way, Girls' Sports by Gayle Gibbs, School Life was directed by Mary Bacon with Joyce Miller as assistant, and the advertising under the direction of Fred Scrafield aided by Harriett Lane, Mary Anne Raymond, and Warren Detrick. The art editor was Marion Carpenter, while John Smith took football action pictures. Many, whose names cannot be mentioned here, have given valuable assistance. See page 128 for further acknowledgments.

BOYS', GIRLS GLEE CLUBS

Holding the spotlight in the activities of the Boys' and Girls' Glee Clubs for the past year was the annual Spring Musical Festival with five high school glee clubs convening together at SPHS, with no judging being done. The glee clubs also aided the art department in putting on the annual Christmas pageant, and they sang at many public performances throughout the year.

The Girls' Glee Club under the direction of Miss Marjorie Brown received the honor this year of being the only glee club invited to sing at the convention of music teachers held this spring in Long Beach. This year the girls of the glee club inaugurated new uniforms changing the plain white dress for the new white sweaters and skirts. The officers of the Girls' Glee Club for the first semester were Marjorie Gerfen, president; Joanne Pearson, vice-president; Pat Farmer, secretary; Bette Knight, treasurer; Martha Eggleson, business manager; and Polly Egan and Doris Colt, librarians. The officers changed for the second semester and included Bette Knight, president; Esther Mae Slater, vice-president, Pat Farmer, secretary; Grace Parks, treasurer; and Martha Eggleson, business manager.

Singing for the Oneonta Men's Club and at the County Teachers' Institute were a few of the public performances given by the Boys' Glee Club during this past year. Also, both of the glee clubs sang at many combined affairs for public performances. Adviser for this group this year was Mr. Albert J. Adams, and they had as their president last year Lowell Ogden. Acting as the group's secretary was Clayton Parkhill and as the business manager there was Warren Detrick.

"Keep the Campus Clean" has been the motto of the Campus Committee for the past year with Evelyn Crump, commissioner of interior, and the chairman, Rosemary Neiswender and Bill Adams have been the representatives from the Girls' and Boys' Leagues choosing committees to help them. The adviser for the group has been Mr. Elmer J. Erickson.

BAND

In addition to appearing at all home football games and marching between the halves, playing at the Los Angeles County Fair, the Pasadena Junior College Homecoming, the Pasadena Rose Parade, the Southern California High School Band Festival, the Long Beach municipal auditorium, and the Gold Shell Park in Pasadena were the main events of the South Pasadena High School Tiger Band during the past year.

For students who want to learn the fundamentals of band work, Mr. Charles A. Mendenhall, band director, offers training in playing and marching in difficult formations. Mr. Mendenhall also trained a group of girls for drum-majoring. The three drum majorettes this year were Betty Arthur, Aileen Avery, and Norma Calkins. For the first semester, Franklin Miller was the president of the band group and Bud Bloomquist was the vice-president. Norma Hall was the secretary-treasurer, and as librarian there was Charles Gordon. There were new officers elected in February, the new president being Charles Gordon. The new vice-president was John Krom, and Adrian Wood was secretary-treasurer. George Varnum was librarian and William Petitt was assistant director.

Each year a limited number of students is elected to become members of the Bengals, South Pasadena High School's honorary organization. The members are chosen on the qualifications of the work they have done to better the school and the willingness with which they do it. This year the Bengals sponsored the Bengal Backward Dance and ushered at all the school gatherings.

Miss Hester Lauman is adviser to the Bengals and the officers are Bob Beedle, president; Carol Henry, vice-president; and Jeanne Quesnell, secretary-treasurer.

Playing for school plays, assemblies, Oneonta Club lectures, operettas, and Graduation were the main events of this year for the High School's Orchestra under the direction of Mr. A. Paul Huntington.

For the first and second semesters respectively the officers were president, Franklyn Miller and Charles Koontz; vice-president, Charles Koontz and Bill Pettit; secretary, LaVerne Hartley and Miriam Kacy; and librarians, Charles Gordon, Jack Pettit, Reg Robinson, George Strong, and Bill Bergstrom.

Under the adviser, Miss Amy R. Foote, public speaking teacher, the officers for the Senate Club were Roy Anderson, president; Fred Scrafield, vice-president; Betsy Jane Belt, secretary; Norma Calkins, treasurer; Bill Yates, sergeant-at-arms; and Jean Denniston, parliamentarian.

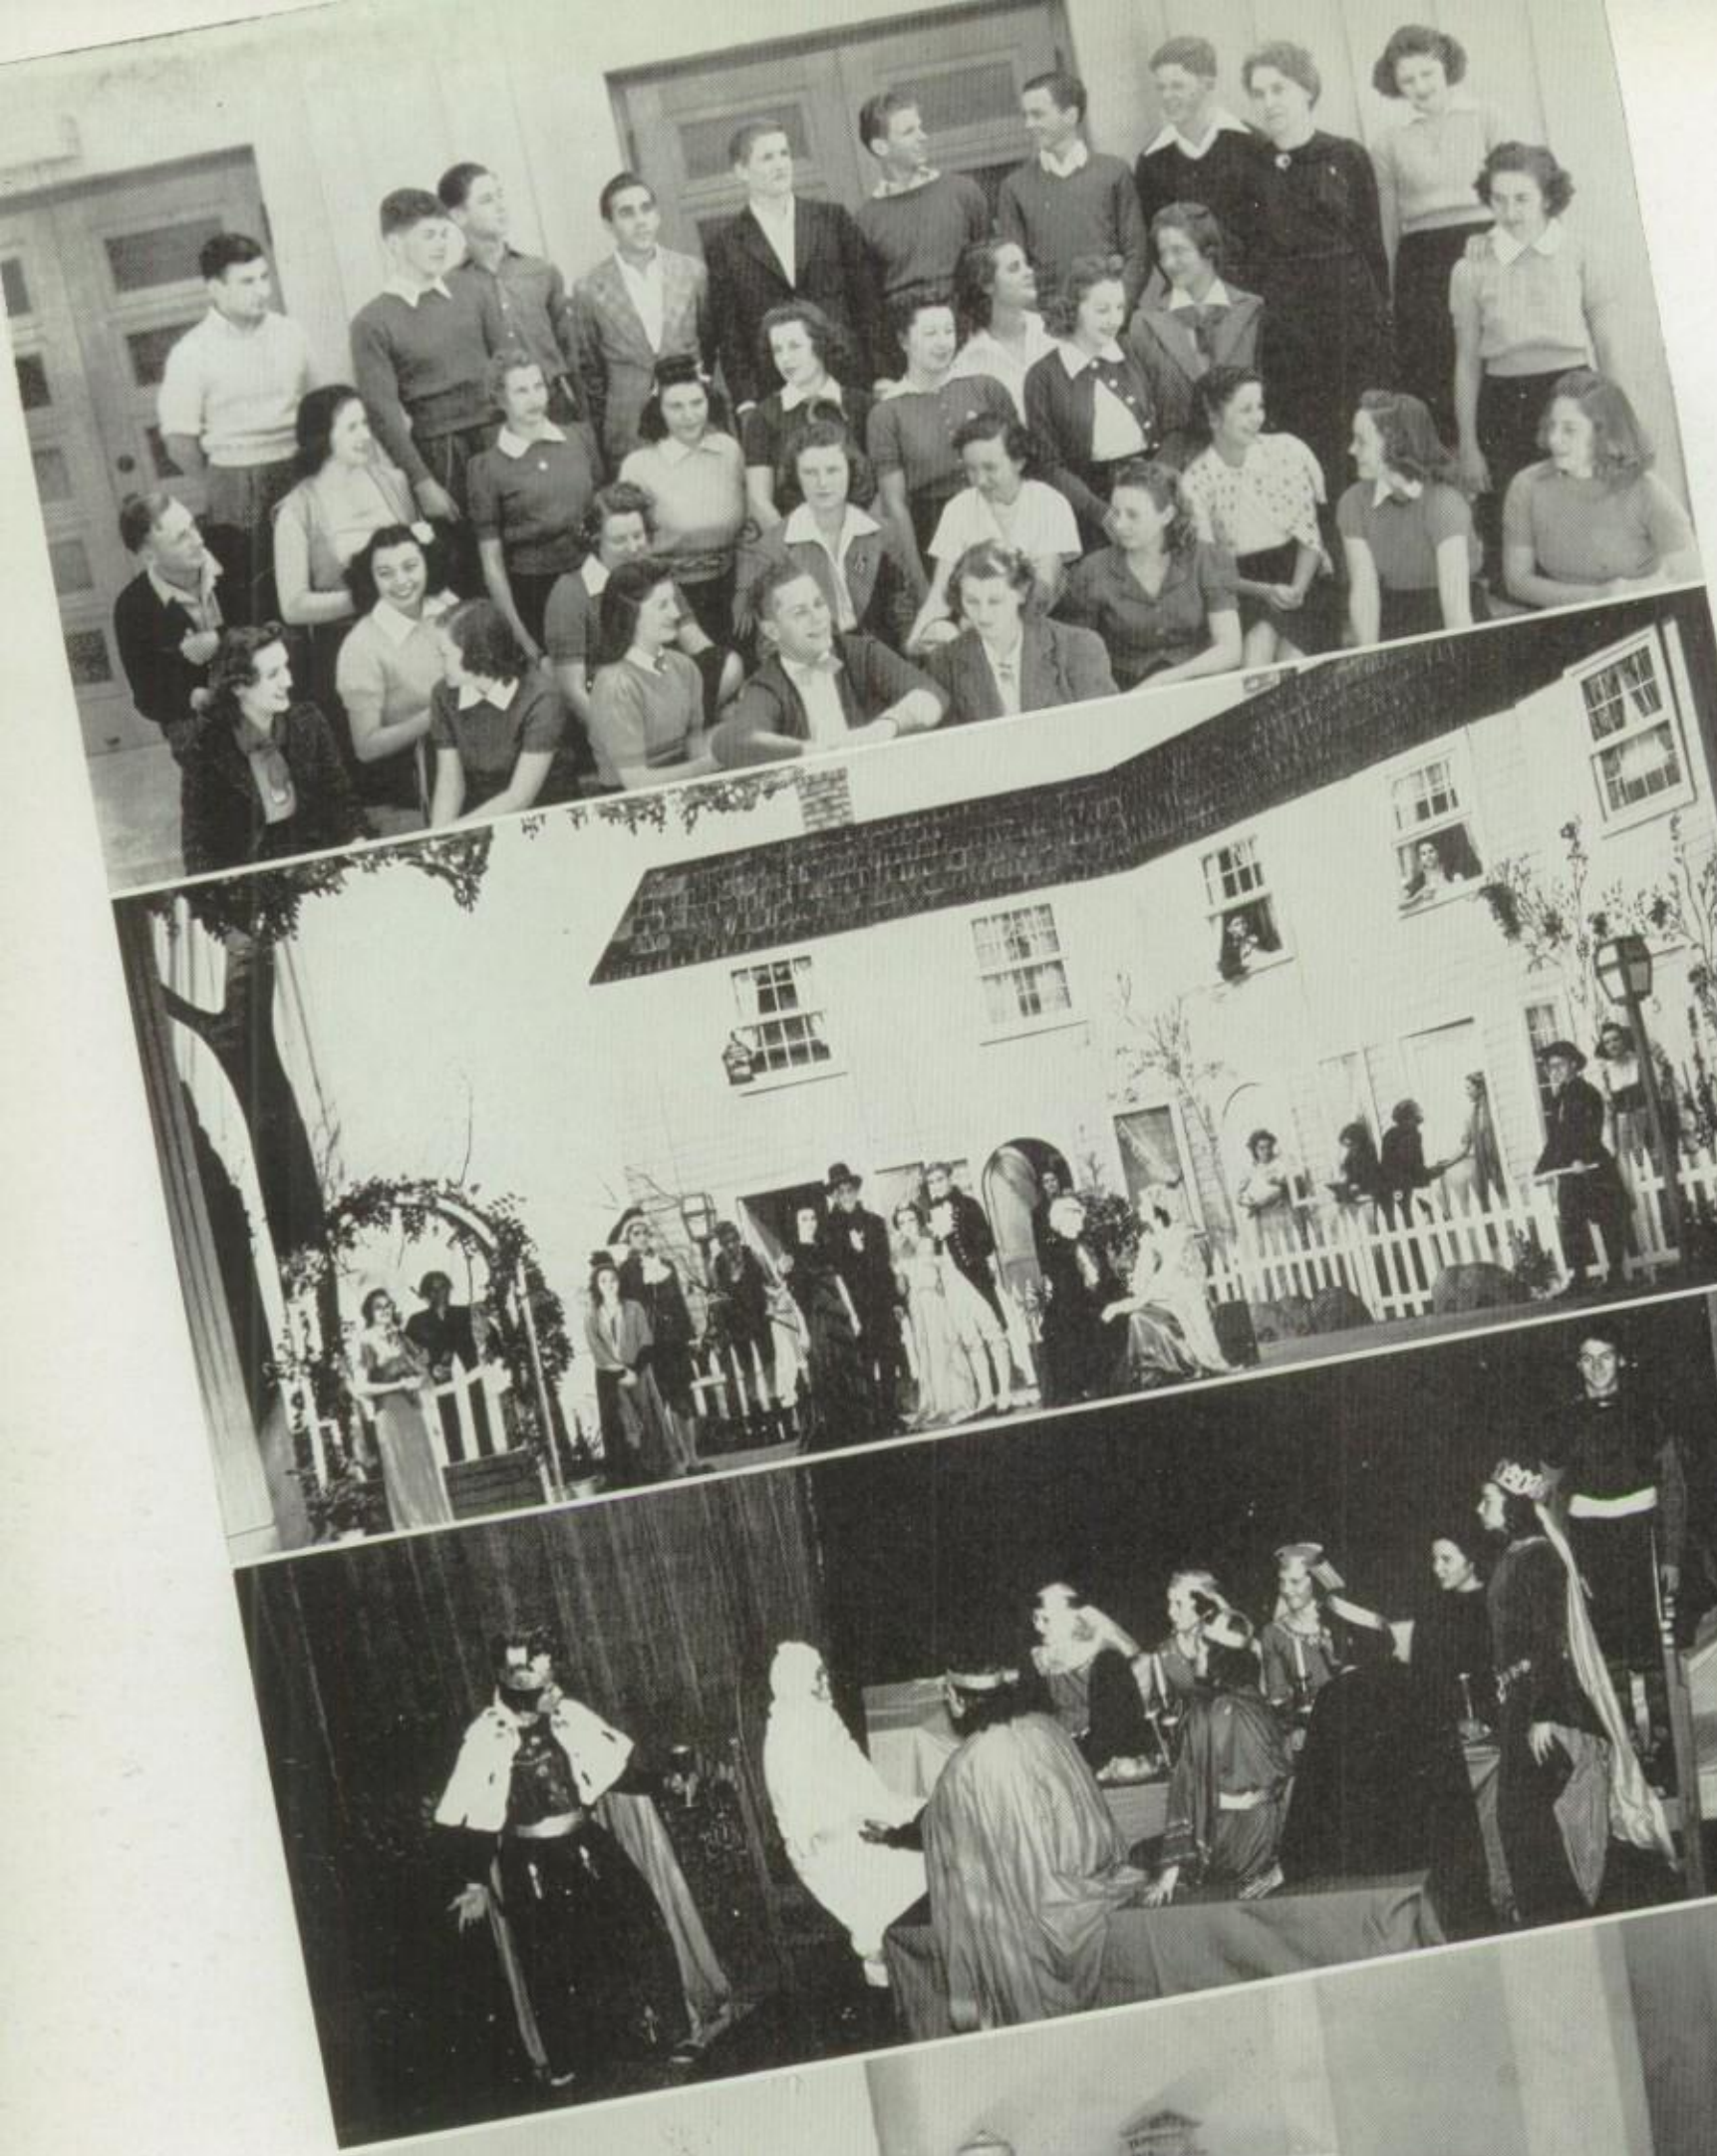
BENGALS ORCHESTRA SENATE CLUB



SENIOR PLAY
PETER PAN PLAYERS

Macbeth, the great Shakespearean drama, was chosen by the Peter Pan Players to be presented as their annual play. Under the direction of Miss Amy R. Foote, drama teacher, the club gave two performances, one for the students in assembly on April 28, and one for the Shakespearean Festival at Occidental. Officers for the Peter Pan Players were president, Jean Hutchinson; vice-president, Bob Thurman; secretary, Avis May; and treasurer, Mary Kay Griffith. Adviser for the club is Miss Amy R. Foote, drama teacher.

Pomander Walk, a play of English manners, was presented late in the spring of 1938. This was one of the most effectively executed productions that this school had ever seen.

Everyone went to "Skidding," not only because it was the annual senior play, but because it was also the original Judge Hardy family story. Under the direction of Miss Margaret Lauer, the class of 1939 presented "Skidding" on the night of March 25.

Portraying Judge Hardy was Dave Way. Frances Cox was the sophisticated young daughter Marion, while Jack Schmidt played Wayne Trent, the young lover. Bill Paul played the part of Andy, the kid brother, while the other two sisters were Betty Andrew and Susie Huguenin. Midge Jones portrayed the old maid aunt, Aunt Millie, and Russell Wright ably portrayed Grandpa. Mr. Stubbins, the politician friend of Judge Hardy, was played by David Kuhlman. Barbara Woods was Mrs. Hardy.

The business staff for "Skidding" was composed of Robert Haverstock and Gordon Munson, business managers; Nan Bennett and Jack Carter, publicity; Jack Lewis, property manager; and Theodosia Robinson and Betty Gerstenkorn, student directors.

The sets were designed by the art classes under the direction of Miss Hester Lauman. The stage crew was under the capable direction of Mr. Edgar Jacobs.

The art department is perhaps one of the departments which contributes the most to our school. Under the art department's supervision, art, commercial art, weaving, sculpturing and other artistic occupations. President of the Art Club, the social part of the department, was Bob Compton. Vice-president was Marilyn Wanger. Frances Johnson served as secretary-treasurer. Miss Hester Lauman was adviser to the club.

SP CLUB—S CLUB

Good sportsmanship and athletic ability are the two main qualifications for membership in the SP Club, the girls' honorary athletic society. Main events throughout the year were an initiation party and beach gathering in September, the bowling party and supper, the initiation in February, hikes taken throughout the year, and acting as hostesses for the spring playday held April 29 at SPHS.

President of the SP Club during this past year has been Mary Lekas, secretary-treasurer was Harriett McCall. Miss Grace Wallace was the adviser.

BOYS' COUNCIL

The Boys' Council deals with the problems of boys. For the past year Virgil Richards has served as the chairman and Frank Wright has been the secretary, with Mr. Elmer J. Erickson as the adviser.

The Council, consisting of representatives from each of the classes and the Leagues, was under the direction of Howard Cheverton, with Marjorie Jones as secretary. Miss Oldt and Mr. Erickson were the advisers.

Handling the students' savings accounts once a week is the job of the savings cashiers.

Handling the money and business of the school is the job of the commercial office. It is run like a bank with Mr. Guy Wood acting as the adviser.

To promote sales is the school bookstore's job. Contests are held monthly to see which member of the bookstore staff can sell the most merchandise.

Working to keep the library running smoothly the El Dorado Club is composed of only those taking the library course. Each girl who completes the course is given a credit by Miss Hope L. Potter, adviser and teacher of the club. Mary Ann Cole has been the president of this group during the past year and the girls have aided the whole student body through their work in the library. Social meetings are the only outside activities carried on by the group.

New turn-stiles and better arrangement of the tables in the cafeteria were two of the improvements made for the cafeteria by the newly organized cafeteria committee under the leadership of the chairman, Evelyn Crump. Ten girls were chosen to serve on this committee which was striving to make the cafeteria more attractive to the students. Miss Jessie T. Oldt helped the girls by making suggestions.

The success of the assemblies and other entertainments given in the high school auditorium depends much upon the stage crew which is directed by Mr. Edgar Jacobs. This group had charge of the general maintenance of the stage equipment and constructs sets for all shows given on the stage. The stage manager for the past year has been Jim Labadie. Tom Watson was electrician; Keifer Curry, carpenter; and William Krom, in charge of the properties.

Putting away the books in the library, designed to give the students more knowledge of the library system, is the job of the library helpers under the direction of Miss Hope L. Potter.

BOYS' SPORTS

OFFICIALS

One major change was made this year in the coaching staff when Coach Roland R. Taylor supplanted Mr. Morford L. Riddick as track coach when the latter transferred to Santa Monica. Mr. Taylor also ably tutored the Bee basketball squad to a near-championship season.

Coach Harry A. Swart as head football coach was assisted by Gordy Clark, South Pasadena graduate and former U.S.C. All-American. Mr. Swart also mentored the tennis team and the tumbling squad.

Mr. James R. Carpenter, because of illness, gave up his duties of Bee basketball coach for the time being to Mr. Taylor but coached as usual the golf and swimming teams.

Mr. Arthur H. (Doc) Bothe took charge of Cee basketball and junior varsity baseball. Both teams enjoyed a fairly successful season.

Cheer-leaders Bob Thompson and Jack Carter were highly commended for their work this year. In fact one of the other members of the circuit termed Bob Thompson as the "happiest yell king in the league." Between the two of them not a single football or basketball contest was missed.

VARSITY FOOTBALL

When the first practice of the 1938 season was held, Coach Harry A. Swart was minus the services of eight lettermen who were lost through graduation. Leading the returning lettermen were Co-Captains Bruce McCall and Bill Symes.

The 1938 backfield, one of the lightest in the history of the school, was composed of Jack Stever, left half, Edgar Worth, right half, and two transfers, Jack Packard of Hemet, quarter, and Harry Walker of PJC, full. George Dickson, Bill Clausen, and Bill Caspers worked as regular substitutes.

In the line, Symes held down one end spot while Russ Ward and Charles Secor alternated at the other wing. Bill Burnham from North Hollywood High and Gene Hargett took care of the tackle spots with McCall and Roy Anderson at guards.

SOUTH PASADENA 0, POMONA 38. The Red Devils opened large holes through the inexperienced Tiger line for Karns and Monnie to pour through. South Pas never threatened seriously.

SOUTH PASADENA 0, ALHAMBRA 31. The Moors, traditional rivals of South Pasadena, for the second straight year pasted a lopsided defeat on the Tigers. The one Bengal opportunity for a score came early in the game when a fumble was recovered deep in Moor territory. South Pasadena fumbled two plays later, however, and the Moors rolled on to victory.

SOUTH PASADENA 7, MONROVIA 6. This unofficial practice match was the lone Tiger win of the season.

SOUTH PASADENA 13, SAN FERNANDO 25. Walker scored both touchdowns for the Bengals —once culminating a march of 63 yards and the other time, one of 18 yards following a fumble.

SOUTH PASADENA 0, GLENDALE 28. Thoroughly tired from their pre-season battles, the Tigers waged a losing fight against the powerful Dynamiters. Jack Packard sustained a leg injury while Bill Burnham was already shelved.

SOUTH PASADENA 0, WHITTIER 25. The league champions made hash of South Pasadena in the second half after the Cards were held scoreless in the first two quarters.

SOUTH PASADENA 7, HOOVER 20. Caspers heaved a perfect pass into the arms of Bill Symes on the goal line who stole the ball from two Hoover players for the Tiger score.

SOUTH PASADENA 6, PASADENA 7. A hitherto victoryless Pasadena J.C. Frosh team pulled an upset by virtue of a conversion. The hapless Tigers thoroughly outplayed their rivals and threw away three scoring chances by poor quarterbacking and ineffectual play. The Bullpups scored on a reverse pass.

BEE FOOTBALL

Four lettermen faced Coach C. Merrill Green at the start of the season in Wallace, Burkett, and McBride, backfield men, and Beifuss, wingman. Young and Thompson worked out as tackles, Dresser and Fisk held down the guard posts with Johnston at center. DeWeese played left end. Davis, sophomore sensation, played right half, Osborn and Burkett traded off at quarter, while McBride and Wallace played left half and full respectively.

SOUTH PASADENA 15, ALHAMBRA 0. Wallace scored the first touchdown and was followed up by Dresser's interception of a pass for 6 more points. A safety occurred late in the game.

SOUTH PASADENA 0, GLENDALE 12. The Tigers were hampered by injuries but still managed to get into scoring position no less than five times.

SOUTH PASADENA 21, FULLERTON 7. Harry Davis was outstanding with his sweeping end runs. He and Osborn scored once while Beifuss blocked a punt.

BASKETBALL

Tiger basketball teams went through a season of ups and downs. The varsity was defeated fourteen times out of nineteen starts and managed to win but one league game. The Bees were the best of the three divisions when they narrowly missed a league championship and lost only six games out of 22. The Cees won four and lost six in league competition.

Everything looks bright and cheerful for Coach Green next year, but the boys lacked the experience necessary to carry them through a successful season for 1939. A varied lineup was used most of the season, but the one that appeared to have the most punch was Paul Simpson and Richie Williams at forwards; Fred Oliver, center; and Eric Falconer and Dave Porter at guards.

Bill Nairne and Al Boekenoogen saw plenty of action at forwards as did Bob Compton, Bruce McCall, and Bill Davis at the other positions. The climax of the season came when the Hoover Purple Tournadoes

TRACK AND FIELD

More than moderate success was enjoyed by the track team under the able tutorage of Coach Roland R. Taylor when they finished in the upper division of the league standings. Not only as a team did they function well, but several of the individuals were outstanding. In the varsity division, Captain Johnny Dresser earned a mark of 53.5 seconds in the 440 yard dash while Bob Compton completed the half mile in the fast time of 2m 3.2 seconds. Dave Merrill, until he was lost for the season because of an injury, was outstanding in the high hurdles, low hurdles, and the hop, step, and jump. In the latter event he established a new school record. Steve Robinson established a new mark in the high jump of 6 feet 3/8 inches, while Willie Vanderhoof soared some 12 feet in the pole vault.

Outstanding in the Bee division were Johnny McBride in the shot put, Don Harnish in the century and the furlong, Russ Burkett in the low hurdles, John Lytle in the 100, Harry Davis in the 100 and 220, and George Lupher in the 660. Bill Beifuss broke the school Bee high jump record with a leap of 6 feet 1 7/8 inches.

George Sato was probably the most outstanding Cee athlete in southern California. His work in the 50, the 100, and the broad jump was extraordinary. Bob Haverstock established a new Cee record of 5 feet 7 inches in the high jump, sophomore Al Buffington was an excellent prospect in the 440 and 1320 besides running the varsity mile. Willie Sato cleared 11 feet in the pole vault.

BASEBALL

The baseball team Coach Green put in uniform was one of the best of recent years. Outside of the fact that the boys had an annoying habit of playing erroneous ball at inopportune moments, the squad worked well as a whole. The team was composed largely of veterans and seniors. The pitching staff was composed of three pitchers, Pud Parmenter, Richie Williams, and Paul (Sac) Simpson. Virgil Richards played outstanding ball behind the plate. Frank Wright at first, Bob Hartley at second, Bob Cline at third, and Harry Oka, short-stop, completed the infield. Richie Williams, when he wasn't on the mound, took care of left field; Walt Ball proved himself to be an excellent center fielder; and Gene Young covered the right field territory.

Early in the season, the squad journeyed to Pomona and advanced to the quarter-finals in the annual tourney. During this tournament the Bengal horsehiders turned in some of their best games of the year. In league competition, the Tigers shut out two teams by scores of 1-0, Hoover and Glendale.

T E N N I S

Although they did not enjoy the tremendous success of former years, the tennis team was, however, one to be reckoned with in league competition. Several of the opposition were indeed lucky to eke out one point victories over the Tiger outfit. Tom Linthicum played first singles for the squad most of the season while Ned Chapin and Franklyn Tibbetts teamed together to play first doubles. Frank Hart and Jack Staples were also a formidable pair who teamed together. Bud Norton, number three on the ladder, usually played second singles. The junior varsity varied from match to match and enjoyed a fairly successful season.

TUMBLING

In order to gain a letter on the tumbling squad, a series of rigid tests on various kinds of apparatus must be passed. Although no interscholastic matches are held with other schools, Coach Swart tries to schedule two or three exhibitions each year. Co-Captains of the musclemen this year were Dick Lawton and Pete Guillen.

As a team the swimming squad has come to be considered one of the best of recent years in the high school. This is quite a tribute to the coaching of Mr. Carpenter as the boys must journey to Pasadena every day in order to practice. Early in the season, Captain Bob Scoles defeated the national 50-yard free style champion Dick Lyons just after the latter had captured the title in the national meet at Chicago. A variety of opponents were met by the Tigers besides their regular league schedule. Last year, South Pasadena placed third in the final league standings while at this writing the final status of the Tigers is not known.

The golf team sadly lacked the experience that had carried so many South Pasadena teams to championships in this sport. Dave Porter was the lone returning letterman out of last year's championship squad, but a new recruit in the form of Bill Cutler helped no end. These two players were, for the most part, ten strokes or more better than the rest of the team and the majority of points for South Pasadena came through these channels.

were upset 29-23 in the biggest thriller a home crowd has witnessed for many a year. Inspirational ball was turned in by all of the boys and the crowd charged on the floor before the game was over, making it necessary for the referee to clear the floor for the game to continue. When the final gun did sound, Coach Green and his lads were immediately mobbed by enthusiastic spectators.

Early in the season, the squad's chances were seriously impaired when two-year-letterman Frank Wright suffered a knee injury which kept him on the sideline the remainder of the year.

The Bee squad, under Coach Taylor, was in the run for the championship throughout most of the season. At times, as against Whittier, they looked to be the best team in the league, but when they met Hoover and Alhambra, they fell way below their peak.

Bobby Gail proved to be the spark plug of the team but when his services were lost through mid-year graduation, the Tiger Babes seemed to be on the down grade and dropped the last two games in a row before falling before the flashy champions from Glendale. Earlier in the season, the Bengals won the Montebello Tourney. After coming home with the cup, they journeyed to El Centro and defeated the Arab varsity 34-27 while the second and third strings were disposing of Fillmore 23-17.

Captain Bob Hartley led the team scoring with 257 points and in the second game with Fullerton, broke a league record by ringing up 29 points. Bud Herrick capably took care of the center position, and Bob Haverstock was moved from guard to forward to fill Gail's vacancy at forward. Armor Killingsworth played exceptional ball at one guard position while Bill Beifuss was outstanding at the other guard spot.

The Cee fortunes changed frequently. Whittier was the only school to fall before the Bothemen twice during the year. The lightweights were able to split a two game series with Alhambra and, in their best game of the year, to down Glendale 18-4. George Sato was the outstanding man on the floor in almost every game the Tigerkits engaged in, usually hitting the hoop for around fifteen points per contest. Captain Bob Andrews with his steady play was largely responsible for holding the team together. Guttorm Hetland, Emmet Spencer, Bill Worth and others are worthy of recognition.

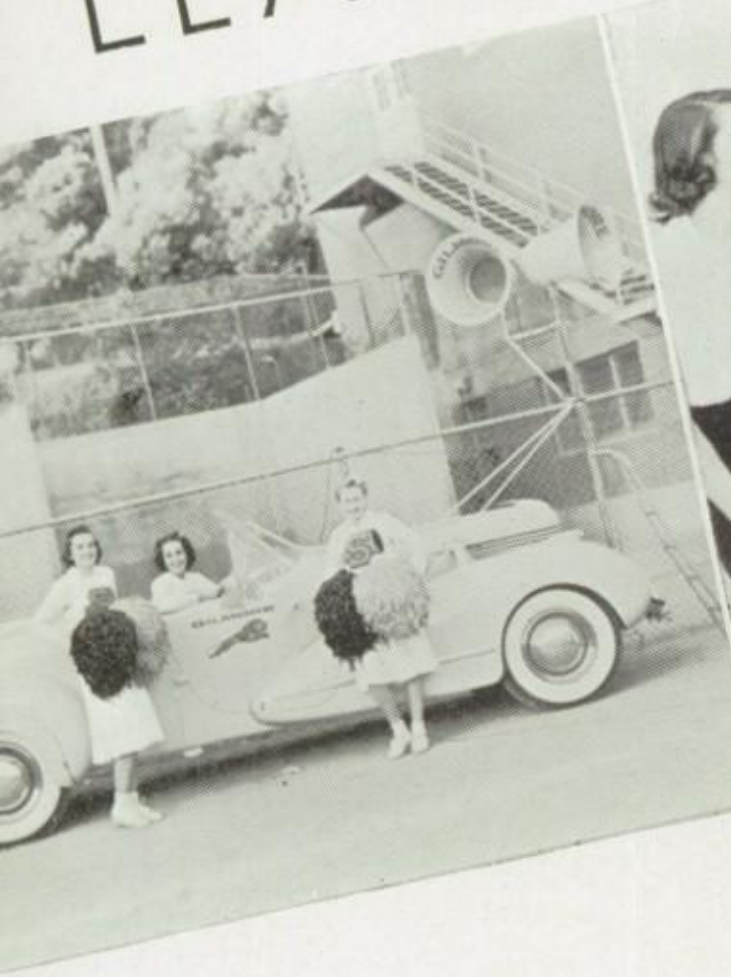
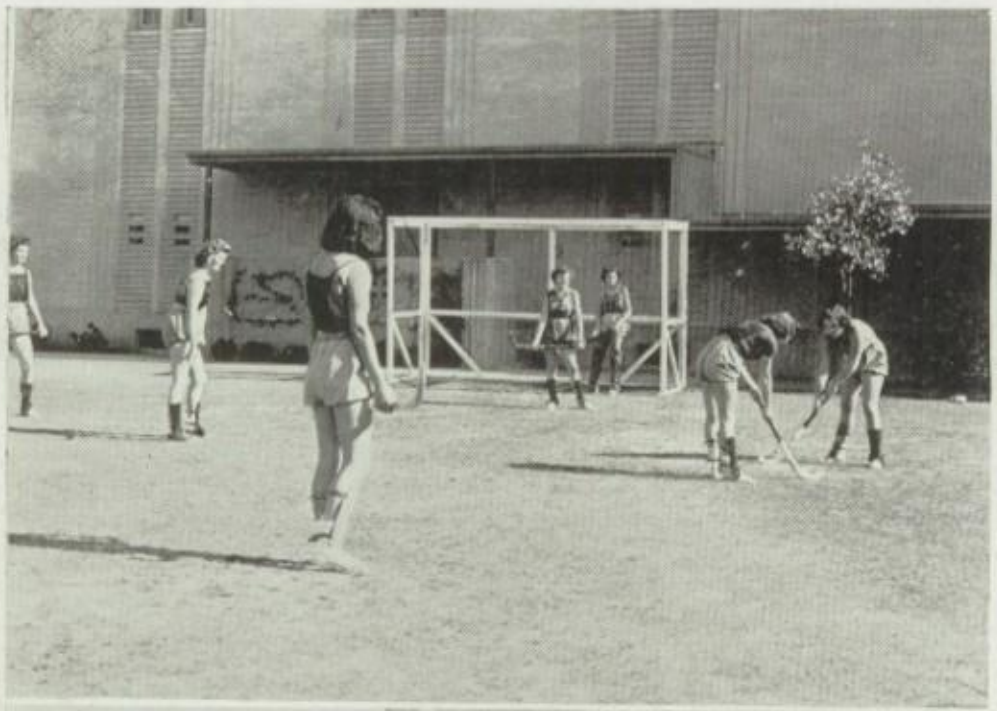
LEADERS

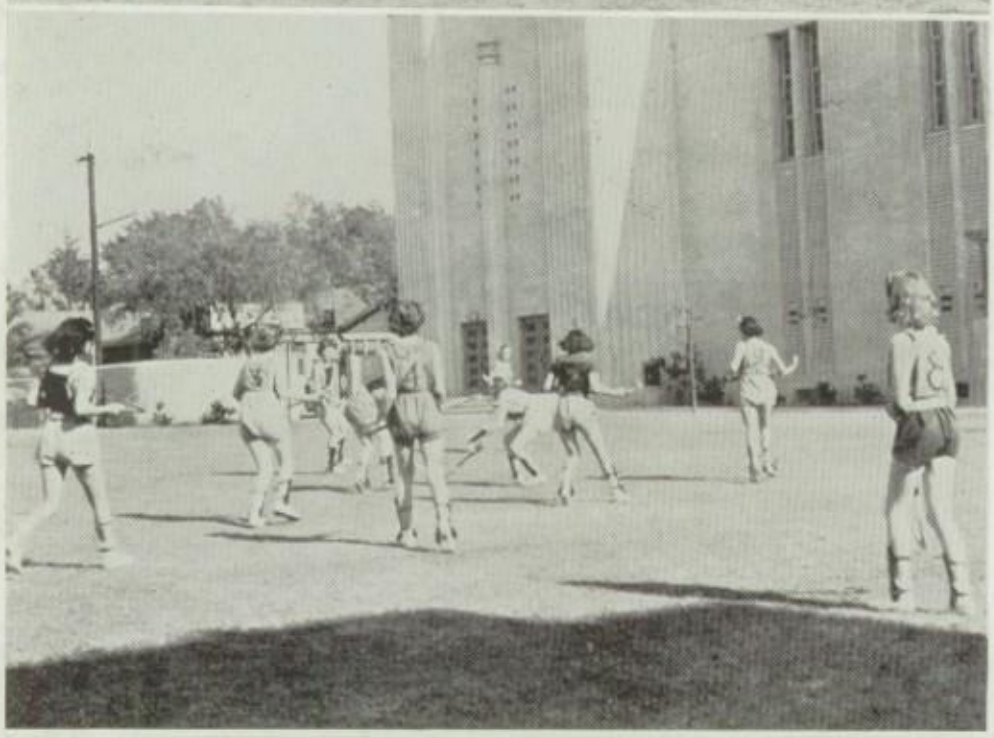


Under the capable direction of Miss Ruth Dix and Miss Grace Wallace, girls' athletics has had an outstanding year. Much credit for the successful completion of the sports events should go to the girls' managers who have charge of the individual sports, hockey, baseball, speedball, basketball, and tennis.

The three girls chosen to be yell leaders have been out for all of the school sports events with the true South Pasadena spirit. During many assemblies, along with the boys' yell leaders, they have participated in many original yells and songs to work up pep for the forthcoming games. Playday was held on April 28 on the home campus with elaborate preparations made by all the girls to insure a successful day for the visiting schools.

HOCKEY – VOLLEYBALL





Opening the fall season of girls' sports, volleyball attracts many participants fresh from summer vacation. The volleyball manager this year was Irma Frey, an athlete who is outstanding in many sports, but especially in volleyball. Under her guidance the girls' teams brought the season through with flying colors. Champion class of the after school games was the third period, and winners were honored at a spread held at the end of the season.

Hockey, which is considered by many as the most energetic and active of all girls' sports, had a markedly successful year under the fine management of Betty Hill. Again the members of the fourth period class walked away with all the honors. Speedball, managed by Carol Buscaglia, started practice in plenty of time to show some real skill when the actual championship between periods was played off. Fourth period, the champions again, received due honor for their efforts to get the title. Speedball takes the place of soccer, and in reality is an even more exciting game to watch, as well as to play. The girls really enter into the game with vim and vigor, and the winner always deserves a big hand. Off to a good start, and under good direction and coaching, all of the periods showed fine teamwork.

Although the basketball season comes at a time of the year when our weather is none too good, it in no way seems to dampen the spirits or ability of the girls. A fine season of basketball this year was managed by Barbara Buttress. Fourth period again turned up with the winning team.

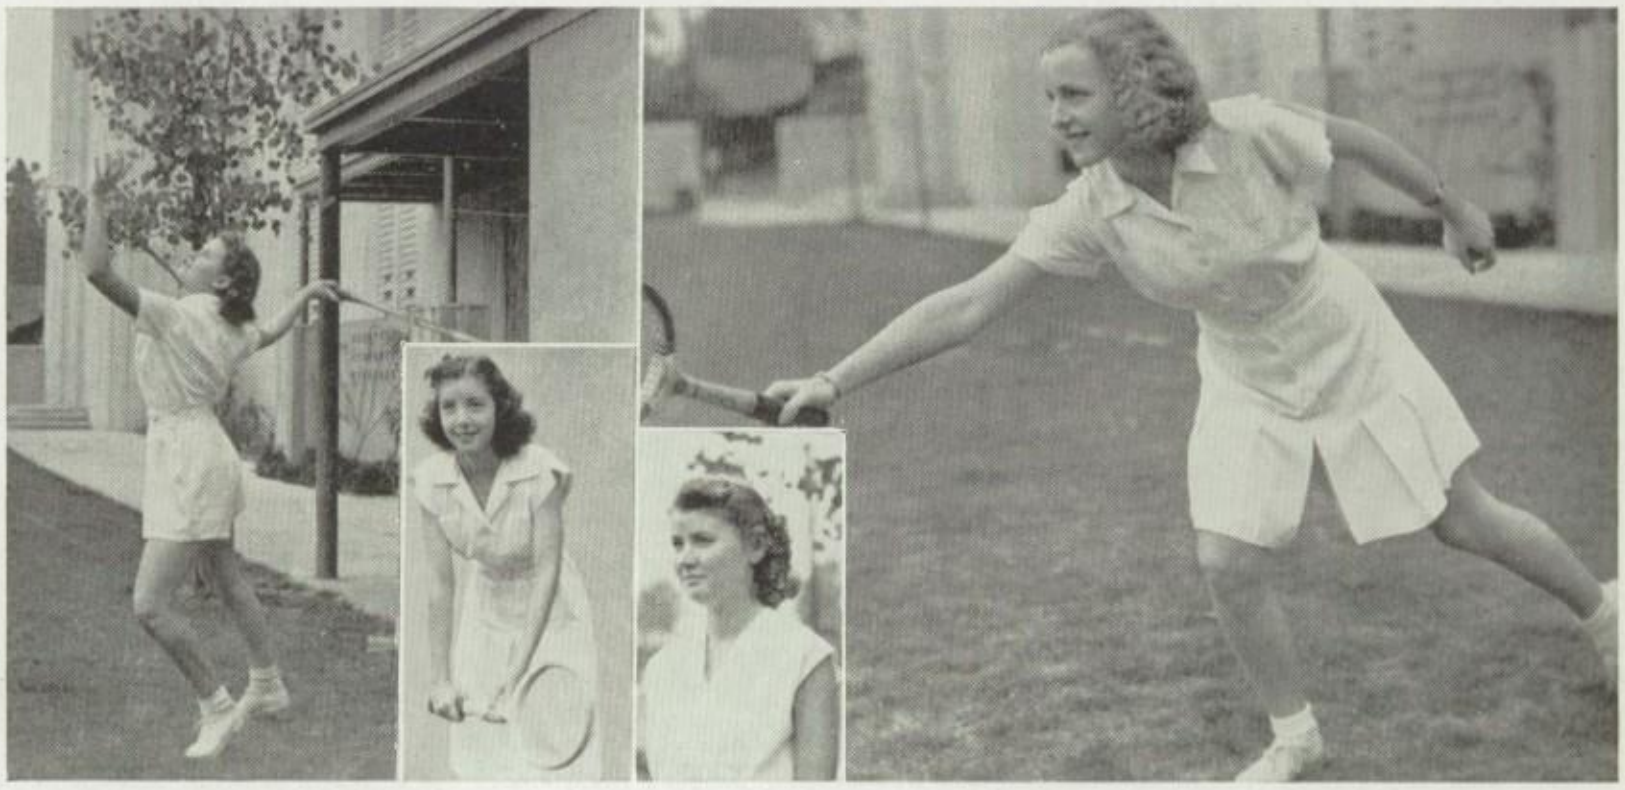
BASKETBALL
TENNIS



Miss Grace Wallace, instructor of the girls' tennis, had some fine talent for the tennis ladder, which, when this went to print, was not yet finished. Some of our more outstanding players even managed to enter the Ojai Matches which are composed of the very best players from all schools. Out of each period are several girls who devote most of their time to this game with the hope of seriously going ahead with it.

RIDING TUMBLING

Weekly instruction was given to members of the girls' riding club at the Arroyo Seco Riding Stables each Tuesday afternoon. Priscilla Harvey, manager, was in charge of arrangements. Organized only since last semester, the tumbling team made remarkable progress. A few of the girls had some past experience, but according to Miss Ruth Dix, even the newcomers improved rapidly with the exercises.

SWIMMING GOLF

In spite of the fact that this school does not possess a swimming pool of its own, a girls' swimming team regularly sees action at the Y.W.C.A. pool in Pasadena. Instruction was given in swimming and diving. Mary Belle Felton managed the team this year and was directly responsible for several of the girls turning out.

Expert golf instruction was given the girls Friday of each week at the Montebello or the Brookside golf course. In order to insure favorable weather, the meetings were held during the latter part of the school year.

ASSEMBLY HIGHLIGHTS

Assemblies held during the year were truly worthwhile and of the greatest interest to students and faculty alike. It has always been the policy of those who are in charge of the programs to see that they offer not only entertainment but educational value. This page and the two following show photographs of the year's outstanding assemblies.

Above is the assembly of September 20, in which Dr. Luther Gable revealed the mysteries of radium. Mr. Harry Weber is shown with his mystery radio control box demonstrated on October 7. When South Pasadena played Glendale High on October 14, coaches and captains got together for a little pep talk. On October 21, the school band played for the student body with drum majorettes Norma Calkins, Aileen Avery, and Betty Arthur.

In the lower picture is the Allied Youth Assembly of October 28 when moving pictures of the telescope at Palomar Mountain were shown. On November 4, Mr. George C. Bush presented the Carver Award to Shirley Peterson, '38. On November 10, Mr. Frank Wilkinson told of his European travels, on a dollar a day. In the lower corner is a reminder of the assembly in which letters were presented, and the CIF movies shown.

ASSEMBLY HIGHLIGHTS

On page 108 is Dr. Richard Morgan, who spoke before the Thanksgiving pageant of November 22. Below, the Swiss Quartet on December 9. The Christmas Pageant, of the December 16 assembly proved a masterpiece of art and music by the art and music departments. Next, Jean and Mary Virginia Burge sang on the school talent assembly of January 6, and were an undeniable hit.

January 13, Reverend James Brougher spoke to the student body, as he does annually. Next is a candid shot of the orchestra playing at the aforementioned assembly. Again to the left is the Goose Creek Quartet, of radio fame, who amused SPHS with their version of "Rigoletto" on January 20. Jim Labadie next shows the new sound equipment, which was dedicated on January 27. The two lower pictures show the presentation of SP Club letters, and the Professor Quiz contest of February 24, and Mary Bellerue, '37, dancer at the March 11 assembly.

Above, on page 109, is Dr. Barker, speaker at the special assembly of March 9. Below, Mr. Harter dressing Bill Symes as a sheik, as he tells of his world-wide travels, on March 11. Next, assistants to Strong Man Santell try their strength at the assembly of April 14. Below this are the amateur show contestants, who displayed their talents on April 21, and further down, an Allied Youth skit of April 14. Next, the amateur show winners, Atckison, Eggleson, Knight, and Price doing their bit.

Below, a scene from "Macbeth," the Peter-Pan Play, given on April 28. Last, but far from least, the candidates for next year's commission give their campaign speeches on Tuesday, April 26. Other interesting assemblies came too late to be included here.
